GRADUATE UNIT

MASTER IN GUIDANCE AND COUNSELING

The program is designed to develop professionals interested in the practice of guidance and counseling. It endeavors to develop students' mastery of the various theoretical foundations of guidance and counseling work and to be enriched in the application courses such as counseling, assessment, group process, and guidance administration. The program also requires a supervised internship, which is focused on counseling case management and school guidance program development. Moreover, the program prepares the students for the licensure exam for guidance counselors.
