

Ateneo de Zamboanga University

SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS

GRADUATE UNIT

MASTER IN PSYCHOLOGY

(Professional Track)

The program is designed to help equip psychology professionals with advanced theoretical anchoring in various courses of psychology such as personality and abnormal behavior, counseling, and assessment procedures. It enriches students' knowledge acquired from their courses through reviews of recent research and infusion in class instruction and an extensive supervised internship course. This makes them become efficient in developing and applying development programs for organization members or clients in the clinical and industrial settings. Moreover, the program prepares them to apply for the licensure exam for psychologists.
